Completing the FAFSA? Here’s what you need:

To apply for FAFSA, your parent(s)/guardians must provide:

- 2018 Federal Income Tax forms (1040, 1040A, 1040EZ)
- Total amount of money in checking and savings account as of this year $________
- Parent’s date of Birth: __/__/____  __/__/____
- Parents’ Social Security Number (if they have one: ___-____-____  ___-____-____
- Amount of child support received or paid $________
- Month and year parents were married, remarried, divorced, separated, or widowed: __/____
- Date your parents became legal residents of CA if later than January 1, 2013 (The date they moved to CA) __/__/____
- Number of people in your parents’ household- how many people live at home that your parents claim on their taxes?

Do your parents have any of the following? (They might not which is okay! Just leave it blank):

- Net value of current stocks, bonds, mutual funds, 529 plan: $_____
- Net value of investment/rental property $ ______
- Untaxed disability benefits: $ ______  Untaxed Workers Compensation: $_____
- Veteran’s non-education benefits: $_____
- Please circle if you receive any of the following: SSI Medicaid/Medical, TANF, WIC, Free/Reduced Lunch, Food Stamps

To apply for FAFS, students must provide:

- 2018 Federal Income Tax forms (1040, 1040A, 1040EX) (if you worked and filed taxes last year)
- Total amount of money in checking and savings as of this year $_____
- Social Security Number ___-____-____ OR Green Card or Alien Registration Number (if you are not a US citizen): USCIS# or ARM# ______
- List of colleges student is applying to – FAFSA will send your information to colleges that you are considering

Go to fafsa.ed.gov to start the application  FAFSA deadline is March 2, 2020